A large number 153 is centered in a cross-shaped frame. The frame consists of four thick horizontal bars (top and bottom) and two thick vertical bars (left and right). The top bar is positioned above the number, and the bottom bar is positioned below it. The left bar is positioned to the left of the number, and the right bar is positioned to the right of it.

The diagram consists of three separate horizontal groups of rectangles. The first group on the left contains three rectangles. The second group in the middle contains two rectangles. The third group on the right contains one rectangle. Each group is preceded by a plus sign (+) and followed by another plus sign (+), suggesting addition or a sequence.
